

Once again, may we remind some parents of your responsibility at the beginning and end of the school day to provide a good role model to not only your own child, but to other children who attend the school. Shouting matches, abusive language and threats between parents are not acceptable. Thankfully, the very large majority of parents demonstrate good behaviour but even isolated incidents will not be tolerated at this school.

KEY STAGE 1 JULIA DONALDSON DAY – WEDNESDAY 23RD MAY

Key Stage 1 children will be celebrating the work of the children's author Julia Donaldson on Wednesday 23rd May. They will be doing a range of literacy, numeracy and cooking activities related to some of her books such as The Gruffalo.

Parents are invited to join their child during the afternoon to share in the activities. Please wait in the main entrance at 1.15 p.m. if you will be joining us.

In line with the policy for parental involvement activities outlined in the newsletter sent home on Friday 23rd March 2018, this event is not suitable for pre-school aged children. As a result, any adult arriving at the school with a pre-school-aged child will unfortunately not be admitted.

School closes at 3.15 p.m. on Friday 25th May for the summer half-term holiday. It opens again at 9 a.m. on Monday 11th June.

PINK DAY IN MEMORY OF EMILY

On Friday 25th May we will be holding a fundraising day for the charity CLIC Sargent which provides support for children with cancer. The day will be in memory of former pupil Emily Bannister who lost her battle against the disease in December 2017 at the age of 12. The charity provided wonderful support for Emily and her family during her illness.

Children may come to school wearing pink clothes, face paint, (or hair!!) in return for a minimum donation of £1. Children who do not have pink clothing can come in their own clothes and they will be given a pink ribbon to wear in return for the £1 donation.

In addition, we have been given a special Clic Sargent bear worth £24 to raffle on the day. If you would like your child to enter the raffle this will be an extra 50p.

CLASS PHOTOGRAPHS:

Samples of this year's class photographs have been sent home. If you wish to purchase a photograph the order and correct payment must be returned to school by Friday 15th June 2018.
